Just Mercy
Adapted for Young Adults
by Bryan Stevenson

Bryan Stevenson is an acclaimed lawyer and social justice advocate. He tells the stories of people who are on death row. Many are wrongfully imprisoned. Stevenson fights for their freedom.

Why is there mass incarceration, in the United States? Are we committed, as a country, to real justice? Stevenson exposes the history of mass incarceration and the death penalty. Root for Stevenson as he fights for fairness, equality and mercy.

“Bryan Stevenson is America’s young Nelson Mandela, a brilliant lawyer fighting with courage and conviction to guarantee justice.... what hangs in the balance is nothing less than the soul of a great nation.”—Desmond Tutu, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate

Zoom Conversation Group

Come join the internet-based conversation!
See and hear from others who have aphasia, from your home.

This is an opportunity to converse about anything you want – what’s happening in the world, politics, entertainment, living with aphasia, your daily and weekly activities – anything goes! Share with others who have aphasia in a supportive environment.
